Where Have You Experienced God TODAY?

How have you experienced God today? Though I believe this should be an easy question to answer, it often is not. Life is busy and full of places to be, things to do and people who need us. It is easy to get distracted by life and not experience the presence of God in our lives. This does not mean that God is not present. It just means that sometimes we miss his presence because we so caught up in other things.

One of my favorite stories in the Old Testament is the story of Elijah. Elijah gets the honor of being God's prophet. It is not an easy job as no one wants to hear what the prophets are saying. Elijah tells King Ahab that there will be no rain until God so decrees it and they experience a terrible drought. Then Elijah faces off with the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel. (You can read this account in 1 Kings 18:16-46) It is a powerful encounter where Elijah prays to God and asks him to light the altar on fire, after Elijah had thoroughly soaked the altar. God responds, and people believe once more in the Almighty God.

After this powerful moment, Elijah gets discouraged. King Ahab and his wife, Jezebel, want him dead. Jezebel threatens Elijah that by this time tomorrow she will have killed him. And Elijah runs. I understand his fear, but also questions why he doesn't trust God. God has just shown his power in an extravagant manner, yet Elijah runs.

While on the run, God sends the ravens to feed Elijah and directs him to Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. When Elijah gets to the mountain, God speaks to him and asks Elijah what he is doing there? Elijah answers, I have been very zealous for the Lord God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant broken down your altars and put your prophets to death with the swords. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too. God sends him out to as the Lord is about to pass by.

Elijah stands on the mountain, waiting for God to pass by. Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; <sup>12</sup> and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. <sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" <sup>14</sup> He answered, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." 1 Kings 19:11-14

God was not in the big, booming moments. God was in the silence. If Elijah had not stopped and truly opened his heart to the presence of God, he would have missed God altogether. If we are going to experience God, then we must open our hearts and look for God.

There are some serious distractions to opening our hearts to God. For Elijah it was fearing for his own life that kept him from being open to God's presence when he was at his darkest moment. For us it is often other things that keep us from experiencing the presence of God. It can be as simple as a tight schedule. When we have lots of things to do, we are less likely to be open to what God is doing in our midst.

It can also be something more dramatic. Sometimes when we are going through a difficult time, we get so wrapped up in the pain that we miss God's presence. Other times it goes completely the other direction and we are more open to experiencing God.

No matter what is distracting us, we often need to pause and refocus if we are going to experience God. I find that if I begin a day asking God to reveal himself to me, to walk with me, then I am more open to God's presence. I need to do something that keeps me aware and looking for God.

Think about the difference in walking through a day just going about your business and going through that same day saying thank you to God for everything. Thank you, God, for getting me up. Thank you, God, for breakfast. Thank you, God for clothes to wear, for water to shower in, for a way to get where I am going. By being grateful for each and everything in our lives, no matter how mundane, we open ourselves to experience the presence of God. We see God's hand in our lives. We experience his presence as we go about our normal lives. Opening ourselves to the presence of God can be as simple as offering prayers of thanksgiving throughout our day.

When we experience God in the little things, we are more open to experiencing God during the big moments of our lives. There will be pain and tragedy that we experience. In those moments God is present. We will be able to receive him more easily, if we have been open to him all along.

Though I wish that summer brought the joy of summer vacation as it did when I was a kid, when summer meant freedom and fun, but summer still brings with it its own sense of joy. We often find ourselves taking trips, eating outside, watching fireworks, doing things that we only do during the summer. During these moments, I want to encourage you to intentionally look for God. Where is God on your spontaneous trip to the beach? Where is God in your backyard barbeque, or your time in the pool? Where is God at the 4th of July fireworks? Where is God on those hot summer days?

This I can guarantee you, God is present. He is with you. He loves you and is walking with you. He wants you to notice him. He wants you to talk to him, to give thanks for him and to praise him. God longs to be in relationship with you.

So, spend some time this summer asking yourself, where have I experienced God today? Maybe even ask yourself each night before drifting off to sleep? Where have I experienced God? It may have been in the kindness of a stranger, in the hug of a loved one, it may have been while you were reading scripture, or a million other places. God is present. Let's notice him!

School Supplies For Main Street Elementary School

During the months of June, July, and August, we will be collecting marble composition books, pencils, yellow highlighters, and boxes of 24 crayons for students in Main Street Elementary School. There will be a basket in the back of the Chapel for your donations. Monetary donations will also be accepted and can be given to Linda Cook or Pastor Brenda. Watch for sales this summer and stock up! Many students cannot afford to buy school supplies or replenish them, and it is left to the teachers to purchase the needed supplies. Our donations will help the children be ready for school and throughout the year!

We are also grateful to the Veterans currently in our church who have served and made sacrifices to defend our freedoms and liberties.

Memorial Fund

Upland Baptist Memorial Fund was established to provide families and friends a place to donate in remembrance of their loved ones. Some donations are made just once, others are made yearly. The fund is used to supplement our church budget and to help provide needed repairs to the church. Please consider our Memorial Fund when you are donating to a charity in lieu of flowers when a family member or friend dies.

Donations to the Memorial Fund were received this year and flowered plants were given to the 11 families in their honor on Sunday, May 27th.

Memorial

Day grave markers were given to the families of deceased Veterans: William Herbster (WWII), Billy Wray (WWII), Charles Hartshorn (Vietnam War) and Carlton Ottey (Vietnam War).

Thank you gifts were given to the veterans in our congregation who returned home.

Father's Day

Father's Day is Sunday June 17th. The idea of a special day to honor fathers and celebrate Fatherhood was introduced in the United States. Sonora Smart Dodd was inspired by a church sermon on Mother's Day in 1909. She planned a day to honor her father in Washington State in 1910. In West Virginia on July 5th, 1908, Grace Golden Clayton suggested the local Methodist Church hold services to celebrate fathers after a deadly mine explosion that killed 361 men.

Calvin Coolidge recommended Father's Day become a national holiday in 1924 but there was no official action. Lyndon Johnson by executive order designated the third Sunday in June as the official Day in 1966. Father's Day was officially recognized as a National Holiday in 1972 during the Nixon administration. Father's Day is celebrated world-wide to recognize the contributions that fathers and father figures make to the lives of their children. Be sure to tell your father how much you love and admire him this year.

"As we express our gratitude we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter the words but to live them." John F Kennedy

MINISTRY TO MEMBERS – Dawn Rafalski

Karen Johnston's son Aaron is deployed out of the country and we have been praying for him and his unit as well as collecting goodies to send to them. Aaron has received both packages that we sent, and his unit is so grateful for our support. For the month of June, we'd like to collect slim jims, chap stick, puzzle or crossword books, packaged cookies, crackers etc. We have sent a lot of candy so no more candy for a while and please no chocolate.

We have three high school seniors graduating this year and would like to recognize them on June 3rd during worship. They have worked hard this year so join us and celebrate their accomplishments.
